Emdeon Office

Instantly connect to a universe of payers

“Implementing Emdeon Office was a great experience. I am so glad that we are now submitting our claims electronically – it is so easy!”

– Mary Howell, Womens Center of Athens

“Emdeon Office is fast easy and efficient. Thank you!”

– Erit and Patricia, Pasquale J. Malpeso

Ideal for all physician practice and clinical settings, Emdeon Office is a low-cost, Internet-based solution that instantly connects you to the largest group of commercial and government payers in the industry. Access a wealth of real-time patient and claims information to enhance productivity and track claims with ease. Emdeon Office enables you to automate key business functions throughout the entire reimbursement cycle including:

- Eligibility and benefits verification
- Referral submission and status inquiry
- Pre-certification and authorization
- Electronic claims submission
- Simple, efficient claim tracking with Emdeon Vision for Claims Management
- Secure email
- Electronic submission, receipt and processing for Workers' Compensation bills and attachments

Productive, convenient real-time information

Implementation is easy. As an Internet-based solution, Emdeon Office gives you simple, easy access to information through your Internet browser at any time. In addition, Emdeon Office interfaces with your existing management system to eliminate redundant data entry and minimize errors.

The ideal choice for physicians and clinics

All physician practice and clinical settings can take advantage of Emdeon Office's time and money saving features. This low-cost, Internet-based solution was designed to convert time-consuming manual processes into effortless electronic transactions.

Simplify HIPAA compliance and security

We accept submissions in a variety of formats then automatically translate all data to meet HIPAA-compliant standards before passing it on to payers. The privacy of these transactions is protected with the highest level of Internet-based SSL 128-bit encrypted security. In other words, we work to ensure data is compliant and secure so you don't have to worry about it.

Track claims without the work

Emdeon Vision is a powerful addition to Emdeon Office designed to give healthcare providers simplified, end-to-end claim tracking from submission through delivery to each payer. Claim summaries allow you to quickly scan all claims at a glance and hone in on specific rejected claims that need attention. Versatile search methods combined with consistent, easy-to-understand error messaging eliminate the labor-intensive work of sorting through endless reports. The new timely filing feature provides access to template letters augmented by specific offers of proof specific to any claim tracked through Vision, for ease in giving payers what they need to get you paid.
